Good evening and welcome to Motspur Park for tonight's Premier League 2 Division 2 game against West Bromwich Albion.

With just four league matches remaining this term, the Whites are looking to cement a place in the end-of-season Play-Offs. Swansea City's win at West Brom last Monday effectively guaranteed the Welsh club the title. Should they avoid defeat against Wolverhampton Wanderers tonight, the Swans will be champions.

Fulham were last in action some 11 days ago when we completed our Premier League Cup Group Stage fixtures with a final game against AFC Wimbledon at Chelsea's Cobham training ground.

With the Whites already qualified and the Dons unable to take second place, the result was academic. Nevertheless, Fulham put in a dominant performance, easing to a 2-0 success thanks to goals from Elijah Adebayo and George Williams. The clean sheet was guaranteed in the closing stages when Taye Ashby-Hammond saved a penalty from Dons substitute Jayden Antwi.

Peter Grant's side were then due to travel to Leyland last Monday to face Blackburn Rovers but heavy rain meant that the venue was waterlogged. A new date will be announced in due course.

Tonight's opponents haven't been in great form in recent months. After starting the season with two defeats in their opening three games, Albion then hit a productive spell with three consecutive wins, including a 5-2 thumping of Aston Villa. However, they've won only once in their last 11 outings.

One of Albion's early successes this season came against Fulham. After Stephen Humphrys had given Fulham a first-half lead, Albion hit back after the break to secure the win through goals from Andre Wright and Tyrell Robinson.

Solihull-born goalkeeper Jack Rose and former Arsenal academy stopper Bradley House have often been used between the sticks this season. The latter joined the club in 2015 and has subsequently spent time on loan with Southern League club Banbury United.

On the right side of defence is Callam Jones who gained experience on loan at Accrington Stanley earlier this season. Rahis Nabi is one of three brothers to have represented West Brom at youth level in recent years, whilst central defender Kyle Howkins spent much of this season on loan at Mansfield Town before returning to Albion in recent weeks. Zimbabwe-born Brendan Galloway can feature at left-back or in central defence.

Cyprus Under-21 international

Panagiotis Artymatas is another central defensive option. He was previously at Chelsea. Dara O'Shea can also feature at the heart of defence.

Australian left-back Max Melbourne has been included in the first-team squad this season. He faces competition for a starting place at this level from Kane Wilson. He made his senior debut in an EFL Cup tie at Northampton Town in August.

Skipper of the side in recent fixtures is Jack Fitzwater who played a single game on loan at Chesterfield last season. Midfield options include Brad Sweeney who made a number of Checkatrade Trophy appearances earlier this term. Sameron Dool and Sam Wilding have come through the Under-18 ranks, along with attacking midfielder Rekeem Harper.

Striking options include Wright, Evan Pierce and Marcus Forss, whilst Kyle Edwards can operate up front or as a midfielder.

Others to feature in recent action include Republic of Ireland youth international winger Zachary Elbouzedi and Congolese-born striker Jonathan Leko who has represented England at Under-18 level, the same honour gained by midfielder Sam Field.

Our next action is in four weeks' time when we travel to Whitley Park to play Newcastle United on Monday 10th April (7pm).
